

Car Documents Checklist

Before selling a car, keep original registration book or smart card ready.

Keep CNIC copies, transfer letter, sale agreement, token tax record, and excise verification if available.

If the car is financed, clear the loan and get a bank NOC before final sale.

Verify chassis number, engine number, and registration number match the documents.

Give receipt after payment and complete ownership transfer as soon as possible.